Reading

- Refer students to the Reading tips on page 20. Ask them to read the Reading article.
- Each heading can only be used once.
- Underlining key words in the headings and paragraphs can be very helpful.
- Read the article again with the headings in place to check your answers.

The Reading article

Paragraph headings can be done in class or for homework. Students do it for revision, but there need to do the task for quality. It should take them about 10 minutes.

When students have done the task (see for homework), ask them to check their answers in class. They should discuss their answers with a partner.

Ask students to refer to the text to support their answers. Don't give students the text if their answers are wrong, but let them discuss questions with a partner.

Use of English

- Refer students to the Use of English tips on page 20. Students can prepare themselves for homework.
- Refer students to the Speaking task in class, read through the instructions and questions and check the letters that they might use

Speaking

- All preparation for the Speaking task (homework) refers to the tips on page 21. Students can prepare themselves about themselves for homework.
- Refer students to the Speaking task in class, read through the instructions and questions and check the letters that they might use
